

NATIONAL ARTS CENTRE
CENTRE NATIONAL DES ARTS

Canada is our stage. Le Canada en scène.

English Theatre is proud to present Children of God by Corey Payette, produced by Urban Ink (Vancouver) in collaboration with NAC English Theatre, in association with Raven Theatre (Vancouver) and presented in association with NAC's Canada Scene Festival.

We recognize that the National Arts Centre is located on the traditional territory of the Algonquin Nation, who are the past, present and future caretakers of this land.

The study guide for Children of God is available on the NAC website, in the English Theatre section, on the Children of God event page: nac-cna.ca/en/event/13620 (scroll down for the button on the left sidebar). There are also some reading copies available in the foyer.

In the Theatre Foyer: Imagine a Canada

Exhibit produced by the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation, University of Manitoba. This exhibit provides an overview of the history of residential schools and Indigenous culture, with a focus on reconciliation. Active steps are proposed for Canadians to move forward, support Indigenous people and contribute to the healing of our country. Special thanks to Tricia Logan.

This production is intended for mature audiences and contains provocative themes and language. Some audience members may find certain scenes disturbing.

Emotional Support Workers are available to provide counseling to audience members who may require it. All are welcome in our support room. Please see an usher for directions. You may also wish to make use of some of the resources listed below.

Residential School Support Crisis Line (24/7): 1-866-925-4419

for anyone experiencing pain or distress as a result of their residential school experience. You can also call the Crisis Line to get information on other health supports provided by the Health Canada Indian Residential Schools Resolution Health Support Program.
